Darrell Anderson
Wounded Iraq War Vet/War Resister

We are honored to have Darrell in the Bay Area for this special weekend. After recovering from being wounded in Baghdad at the age of 22, Darrell returned to the U.S. Rather than face the possibility of being sent back to fight and kill in an unjust war, he decided to leave for Canada—where he lived for about two years. In Fall of 2006, he came back to the U.S. and turned himself in to the Army, which gave him a less-than-honorable discharge. Tonight he will be accompanied by his mother, Anita Dennis. An organizer with Courage to Resist will be on hand to let us know how we can support war resisters.
